Glossary Of Terms

English

Term	Definition
Arranged overdraft	The account provider and the customer agree in advance that the customer may borrow money when there is no money left in the account. The agreement determines a maximum amount that can be borrowed, and whether fees and interest will be charged to the customer.
Cash withdrawal or deposit	The customer requests to deposit or withdraw cash in or from the account.
Depositing and encashing a cheque	The consumer presents a cheque, whether local or international, for deposit or encashment.
Direct debit	The customer permits someone else (recipient) to instruct the account provider to transfer money from the customer's account to that recipient. The account provider then transfers money to the recipient on a date or dates agreed by the customer and the recipient. The amount may vary.
Maintaining the account	The account provider operates the account for use by the customer.
Making payments using an International Debit Card	The account provider enables the consumer to make payments using an international debit card.
Providing and renewing a debit card	The account provider provides a payment card linked to the customer's account, enabling the latter to withdraw and pay, locally, abroad, and even online. The amount of each transaction made using the card is taken directly and in full from the consumer's account.
Receiving money - Euro	The consumer receives money in Euros from Euro account.
Receive money- other currencies	The consumer receives money in non-euro currencies from non-euro account.
Replacing a card	The consumer requests a replacement of a card that was lost, stolen or damaged.
Requesting statements	The consumer requests bank statements, in paper or on other durable medium, over and above those which the payment service provider is required to send by law.
Sending money in Euros to other account in the Single Euro Payment Area	The account provider transfers money, In Euro, on the instruction of the customer, from the customer's account to another account in a SEPA country.

Sending money in other currencies to any other account	The account provider transfers money, in non-euro currencies, on the instruction of the consumer, from the consumer's account to another account.
Standing order	The account provider makes regular transfers, on the instruction of the customer, of a fixed amount of money from the customer's account to another account.
Stopping a cheque	The consumer asks the account provider to stop the encashment of a cheque issued by that consumer.
Subscribing and renewing internet banking	The account provider provides the consumer with access for banking services using the internet.
